

Follow-up activities can help with enjoyment, support understanding/reading for meaning, ensure that the most is achieved from a good book, and help with discussion.....

COMIC STRIP Choose the five most important events that happened in your book and turn them into a comic strip.	MISSING POSTER Create a wanted poster for a character from your book. Include a description, what they did and a reward.	BEGINNING, MIDDLE, END Write about what happens in the beginning, middle and end of your book. Write at least 3 sentences for each section.
WRITE A LETTER Write a letter FROM one of the characters in your book to another friend. Explain some of the things that happened as though you are the character. (In the 1st person)	QUIZ Make up at least five questions about your reading book. Write them in your book then turn the page upside down and write the answers in a different colour.	NEW PICTURE Find a part of your book that doesn't already have a picture. Draw a new picture to show what happens and write 2 or 3 sentences from the book to show what is happening.
MY FAVOURITE PART Write about your favourite part of your book and explain why you like it. Use several connectives to write longer sentences.	BOOK REVIEW Did you like or dislike your book? Explain why. Mention the story line, characters, problem or information. Who do you think would like it?	ACROSTIC POEM Choose a character in your book and write an acrostic poem about them.
THE GOOD AND THE BAD Write down three good things and three bad things about each of the main characters in your reading book.	DRAW Draw a picture of your favourite character. Add a description and the character's name.	HOLIDAY DESTINATION Describe where and when the story took place. Explain why you would (or wouldn't) like to have a holiday there. Then draw a picture of it.
FAVOURITE FACT Pick your favourite fact from your book and make a poster explaining about it.	GLOSSARY Pick 5 words from the book that you did not know before or thought were interesting and make a mini glossary.	MINI STORY Choose one fact from your book and write a short story which includes this idea.
