Research Viking homes then write an advert 'House for Sale' Explain the features of your house and why it is a good buy' Challenge: Can you include your knowledge of artefacts to add historical details?  Signature of parent/carer: Topic Date completed:
Create a board game. It must have a Viking theme. Don't forget to include rules for playing your game. You can draw out your game in your book or Challenge: Make the game and bring it in so we can play it! You can use counters from school if you need to  Signature of parent/carer: Date completed:	Vikings loved sagas (long stories). Beowulf is probably the most famous of these. Beowulf is a skilful and brave warrior who fights off the evil monster Grendel who has terrorised the land for years. Draw a detailed image of this monster and label it Challenge: If you prefer story writing, why not write your own short saga?  Signature of parent/carer: Date completed: Topic/English/Art	Family Week For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -a walk in the woods -we went to a museum -we went away for the weekend Or Choose an activity of your own to do together Signature of parent/carer: Date completed:

Ongoing activities:

Times tables: Practise the Times Tables which are YOUR TARGET EVERY WEEK. SHOW ME evidence of this please.

Spelling: When you are given a list of words please practise them. Either write out the words or put them into sentences.

Reading: Read your school book, library book, or any other book at home. Remember to record this in your reading record.

Sometimes I will set additional grammar or maths homework too. This work will need to be done the week that it is sent home please.

REMEMBER BEST HANDWRITING AND PRESENTATION ALONG WITH CAREFUL SPELLING AT ALL TIMES!
